

NH DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

NATURAL RESOURCE CONNECTIONS

- Policy development
- Environmental permitting
- Natural resource conservation
- Energy facility project assistance
- Economic development
- Emergency preparedness
- Response and homeland security
- Hazardous waste site remediation
- Aquatic resources assessment
- Technical writing
- Public health services.

OTHER INTERESTS

- North Country Council regional planning commission
- The Governor's Office/State Planning
- The NH Department of Health and Human Services + private consultants.
- Adjunct professor at Lakes Region Community College, Laconia, with emphasis on environmental regulation and stewardship.

TIMOTHY DREW

Administrator of Public Information and Permitting, Office of the Commissioner, Retired

➤ EDUCATION AND WORK EXPERIENCE

BA, Biology & Chemistry (magna cum laude) Plymouth State College, Phi Kappa Phi Academic Honor Society
MS, Civil Engineering, Tufts University

DEVELOPED THE OFFICE'S ROLE INTO THE KEY COORDINATING BODY ENVISIONED BY THE NH LEGISLATURE towards "ONE-STOP" CONTACT FOR PERMITTING

- Interagency coordination
- Public information dissemination
- Website design
- Development and Operation
- Public participation
- Publications
- File review services via NHDES' "Right-to-Know Act."

➤ ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- NHDES Governor's Office representative for "Business One-Stop Initiative"
- Preparation of the first Solid Waste Management Plan for New Hampshire
- Prepared the Guidebook for Environmental Permits in NH
- Supported the NH Site Evaluation Committee for major new energy facilities (electric, natural gas, oil, wind, and solar farms)
- Technical assistance with the NH Dept. of Business and Economic Affairs to attract and establish companies in New Hampshire.
- NH Wetlands Board and NH Wetlands Council
- Represented NHDES on the Council on Resources and Development.
- Served as the presiding officer to resolve wetland and other land development-related conflicts.
- Served on the Aquatic Resource Mitigation Fund's Site Selection Committee.